

UNESCO Prize for Girls' and Women's Education

Explanatory Note for the 2018 Call for Nominations

A. Background

The UNESCO Prize for Girls' and Women's Education rewards outstanding efforts of individuals, institutions other entities or non-governmental organizations engaged in activities in girls' and women's education. The Prize was established by the Executive Board of UNESCO at its 197th session, and launched in 2016 with generous support by the government of the People's Republic of China. The Prize contributes to two Sustainable Development Goals: "Ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all" (Goal 4) and "Achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls" (Goal 5).

B. Nominations

Nominations can be made by Governments of UNESCO Member States via their Permanent Delegation to UNESCO, and Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) in official partnership with UNESCO. Nominations must focus on a specific project or programme of the nominee advancing girls' and women's education. Each Permanent Delegation or NGO can make up to three nominations for any edition of the Prize. Self-nominations are not accepted.

C. Selection Criteria

The two Prize winners will be selected by UNESCO's Director-General on the basis of recommendations made by the independent International Jury of the UNESCO Prize on Girls' and Women's Education, consisting of five experts from all geographical regions. The project/programme of the nominee will be assessed by the Jury based on the following criteria:

b. Innovation

actions. The project/programme can demonstrate innovation in terms of:

- the themes covered;
- the methodology employed;
- the channels used to create change for girls and women; and/or
- other aspects

c. Sustainability

The project/programme has taken steps, ideally from its design or implementation phases, to ensure it will have a lasting impact beyond the project lifecycle. This may include efforts to ensure the:

- continuation of local action;
- institutionalization; and
- generation of further initiatives as a result of the project/programme.

In addition to these three criteria, the project/programme should:

- have already been running for at least two years
- show evidence that it may be replicable, scalable and/or provide significant learning potential for initiatives in other contexts
- contribute to one or more of the five Priority Action Areas of the Prize :

  2. Supporting adolescent girls and young women to acquire literacy skills;
  3. Supporting the creation of a gender-responsive and safe teaching-learning environment, free of school-related gender-based violence;
